1/32 Saloon (H)

The first of the 1/32 Saloon championship, A good atmosphere in the club house with everyone keen to test their cars in the practice, Baz had his new car sorted and was flying!, Young Lee was breaking in his new motor and It looked like some close racing was insured , Dick's car looked well planted on the track and showed he was the one we would have to try and beat, Mark too had some good practice lap's we would also have to chase him down to score some points. So onto the heats and sure enough it was close with only one & a half laps separating the top 3 in the first race and it could have been anyone's race as they swapped position's throughout and this continued throughout the heats, what a Cracker!, Here's how the finals finished.

C Final – 6mins

Liam-Ted-Lee-Mac

Young Lee edged into the lead from the start and wasn't going to give it up with some nice steady racing, Liam & Ted were battling for position and having a really good battle, Mac was chasing from the rear and trying to catch up, The clock ticked away and Lee was lapping the others and maintaining his lead, looks like Lee is turning into a mature racer!, Ted needed to lap Liam by 2 lap's and was closing in fast!.

B Final – 6mins

Liam-Lee-Baz-Mark

The race started and for the first few laps there was only a few feet between them all!, Baz trying to pass Mark placed himself to close and on the wrong side and the cars touched with Baz having the first fall of the race, Liam was starting to struggle under the pressure and started to crashed here and there, Young Lee being in the lane next to Liam suffered having to mind he didn't hit Liam's car and this slowed him down load's, Mark however being on the outside was flying and taking full advantage away from the scuff's, Baz started to get back into his rhythm and was chasing mark hard but the clock ticked not in his favour.

A Final – 6mins

Derek-Mark-Dick-Tony

I knew I was going to have to push it hard to have a chance in this race, The race started and I made it to the first bend and went flying into the barrier what a plonker!, Dick flew into the lead with the others following, Derek was pacing himself with a 7 laps head start, Mark in front of me went into the barrier and I honked my horn as I passed Lovely juvely!, Dick though was on a flier and I just couldn't get near having to let him pass on the straights all I could do was make sure I stayed in front of Mark who wasn't giving up easily and chasing as hard as he could, The buzzer sounded the end of the race, Phew! Well done Dick good race!.
